Had unique opportunity to meet vibrant 1995 batch commerce students who brought life to the campus on a Sunday. They travelled from far and near ...It was an amazing feeling to hear them speak of their Alma mater and their teachers. Hoping that they may be an inspiration to many other batches.. waiting to welcome you all. Bravo Commerce 1992-1995 batch

"Though your branches grew in different directions, your roots remain as one."
There is nothing like returning to a place that remains unchanged to find the ways in which you yourself have altered. - Nelson Mandela

The minute you all came together again, it felt like no time had passed at all. You spent most of your time recounting funny stories from classes or dishing on other college life memories. It was a pleasure seeing your faces light up again as you seated yourselves in your classrooms after 42 years. (1980 batch chemistry department) It was heartwarming to watch you excitedly interacting with your dear teacher, Mother Mary Frances.

We hope to see many more of our students returning to their alma mater to reminisce, reconnect and relive the best years of their lives.
