National Seminar

The Department of French, All Saints' college, Trivandrum took part in the three day National seminar in November 2nd to 4th, 2022 conducted by the Department of Languages, Kendra Sahithya Academy and All Saints' College, Trivandrum in collaboration with Departments of Hindi and Malayalam. The Seminar focused on the topic : "Comparative and Contemporary studies in Literature ". On the inaugural day of seminar, opening remarks and the introduction of the Seminar was given by Dr. Seenu Lukose, she highlighted the Contemporaneity and universality of the world views depicted in the French and Malayalam novels especially a study of the literary works by the Famous French writer Albert Camus and famous Malayalam writer O.V Vijayayan. She compared the works like Stranger and Mayyazhi puzhyude theerangalil. She emphasized the need of more comparative studies in the field of literature in French and our Indian languages. 92 students actively participated in the Seminar discussion and gave their views and ideas in the comparative study.

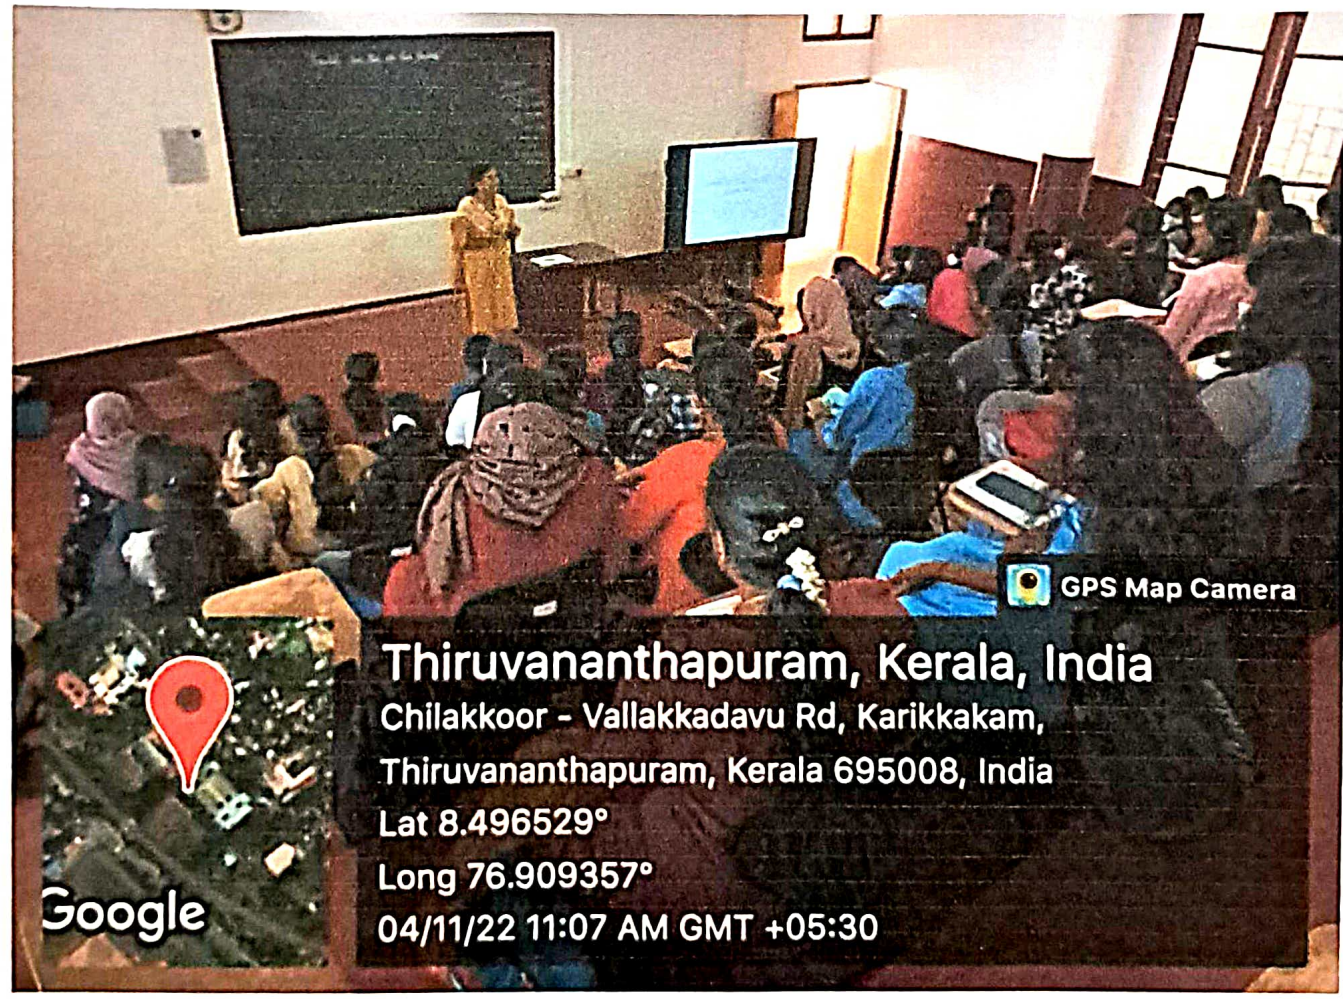

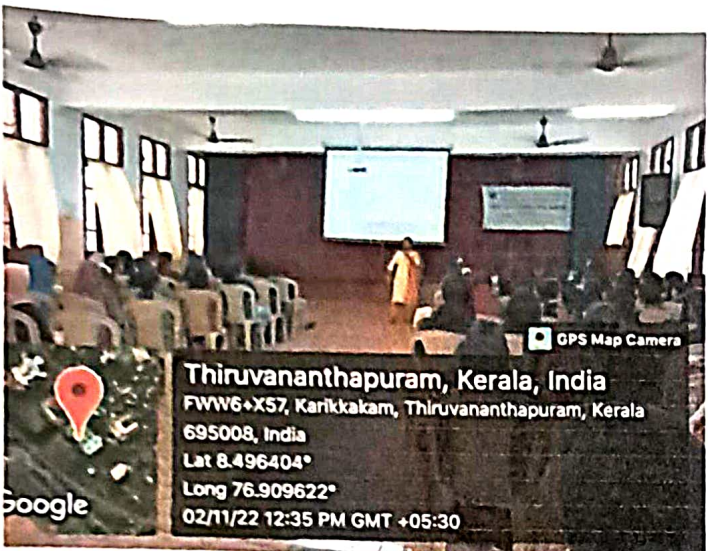

On the second day of the seminar Dr. Somada M, Retired Assistant Professor of French from Cochin College delivered an interesting and thought provoking session on the topic " A journey through literary movements in French and Indian literature". More than 100 students profited from this session.

Her expressive gestures and attractive language took the students to another world of comparative literature. Dr.Somada also explained various comparisons using the folklore stories in French and Jathaka Stories/ Aesop's fables in Malayalam and Hindi. On the same day, a paper was presented by Ms. Reshma Maria Sampath a resourceful Assistant professor of French from University College Trivandrum. She did a paper presentation on "Surrealisme à travers Jacques Prévert" a talk and discussion on the French poem "Déjeuner du matin" by Jacques Prévert. She made the session awfully engaging to 72 students by using Kahoot quiz and also using various group activities

On the last day of Seminar, Dr. Shoba Liza John a distinguished French professor and Head of Additional Languages département, Sacred Heart College Thevara inaugurated the French Club of All Saints' College, Trivandrum. She also conducted a workshop for 50 students on "Travailler la littérature en class de FLE". Students were asked to create their own stories written in French using images shown to them. She made the workshop interesting by emphasizing on the various ways of language learning through the literary works.
