The auditorium roared to life with the vibrant performances of students. The cultural programs were kickstarted by a Kerala fusion dance which was followed by a Thiruvathira by students. Then held the much awaited first round of the Malayali Manka 2022, which was followed by stunning performances from the Harmony club and the College dance team.

The event moved on to the second round of the pageant and five contestants were selected for the final round. The tensy of the second round was blown away by the melodious performance by our dear teachers. The final round of the Malayali Manka 2022 was a question-answer session through which the winners were selected. Ritika Anna Mathew of DC3 Bcom TTM emerged as the title winner and Nandana Das of DC2 English Literature and Varsha Rajendran of DC2 Communicative English were declared 1st and 2nd runners-up respectively.

Another highlight of the day was the inter-departmental Athapookalam Competition which was simultaneously conducted in the Recreation Hall. The nine departments of the college actively participated in the competition. The department of Chemistry emerged at the first position followed by the Departments of Physics and Botany in the second and third positions respectively.

The movie for the forenoon session was the classic hindi movie ‘yeh jawaani hai deewani’ starring Ranbir Kapoor and Deepika Padukon. The movie was well enjoyed and the students were on their feet for the song breaks.

The movie for the afternoon session was Quiet place, a horror sci-fi english movie. The movie was quite nerve wracking and the students could get the entire story effect of the movie with the dark ambience of the auditorium. The day’s show came to an end by 3:30.

Day 2

The movie for the second day began at 10 am sharp. The tickets were the same ones issued the day before. The audience was comparatively less compared to the day before but the excitement was still intact.

The movie shown for the forenoon session was ‘Jaya Jaya Jaya Jaya hai’, the newly released Malayalam movie starring Basil Joseph and Darshana Rajendran. The movie is about a woman Jaya who fights against the cultural norms of being an ideal married woman in the society. The movie was well accepted by the audience. The movie was over by 12:30.

For the afternoon session, the movie shown was ‘Ok kanmani’, the romantic Tamil movie, starring Dulquer Salman and Nithya Menen. The audience was completely into the story and enjoyed the movie till the end. The movie was over by 3:15 pm.

Thus, the film fest for the year 2023 was well accepted and enjoyed by the students and was a great success.
