All Saints' College AICUF Unit and JESUS YOUTH Report 2024-25

The AICUF (All India Catholic University Federation) Unit of All Saints' College had an eventful year, filled with enriching programs, leadership initiatives, and social outreach activities. This report summarizes key events and achievements of the unit during the academic year 2024-25.

1. Orientation Program

Date: August 7, 2024

A special orientation session was conducted for first-year students to introduce them to the AICUF unit. The session successfully inspired many students to join and actively participate in the initiatives of AICUF.

2. Monthly Meetings

Regular meetings were held every month, providing a platform for members to discuss upcoming programs and engage in discussions on pressing social issues.

Key Activities & Events

3. AICUF Centenary Inauguration (May 24-27, 2024)

The centenary celebration of AICUF took place at St. Joseph's College, Trichy, under the theme Reimagining AICUF: Journey Towards Transformation. Thirty students from Kerala, along with state advisors, participated in this four-day event. Three students from our college attended, gaining insights through interactive sessions with eminent AICUF members.

4. State-Level Leadership Training (July 27-28, 2024)

A leadership training camp at the AICUF Centre in Trivandrum provided valuable skills to student leaders. From this camp, a new executive team was elected, with Adonshya Babu from our college securing the position of Vice President of Kerala State AICUF Executive.

5. Relief Drive for Wayanad Landslide Victims

In response to the devastating landslides in Wayanad, students actively collected and distributed relief materials to affected families, showcasing their commitment to humanitarian efforts.

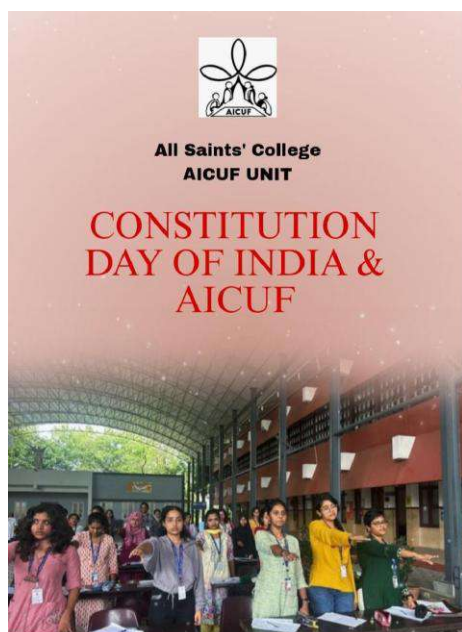

6. Justice for Dr. Vandana Campaign (August 23, 2024)

AICUF members organized a campaign advocating justice for Dr. Vandana, a victim of a heinous crime. This event raised awareness about women's safety and called for stricter laws to prevent such incidents.

7. AICUF Day & Constitution Day Celebration (November 26, 2024)

The college celebrated AICUF Day and Constitution Day with cultural performances, speeches, and discussions emphasizing justice, equality, and social responsibility. Students took a pledge to uphold constitutional values and work towards an inclusive society.

8. Poster Making Competition (February 18, 2025)

A poster-making competition on Environmental Conservation was conducted by Sr. Cecelia and the AICUF executive team. Students from different departments participated enthusiastically, and three winners were declared.

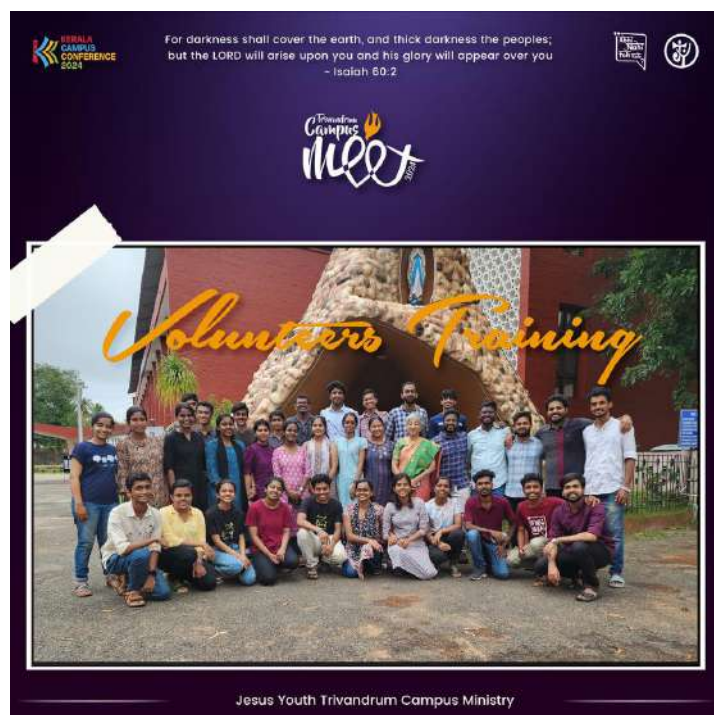

The AICUF Unit of All Saints' College had a highly impactful year, fostering leadership, social awareness, and service-oriented values among students. Looking ahead, the unit aims to continue its journey towards social transformation and empowerment.

Jesus Youth Activities of All Saints' College – A Report

Core Gatherings

The Jesus Youth of All Saints' College holds weekly gatherings every Wednesday at Ascites Square from 12:45 PM to 1:00 PM. These meetings aim to foster Catholic values and spirituality through prayer sessions, workshops, activities, Bible reading, and talks by inspiring speakers.
