The workshop began with a prayer, setting a serene and focused tone for the sessions that followed. The first session on Entrepreneurship, Innovation, and Invention was delivered by Akash J J. With his extensive experience in various leadership roles, Akash shared valuable insights into the entrepreneurial landscape, emphasizing the importance of innovation and invention. He discussed strategies for fostering a culture of innovation and highlighted successful case studies to inspire the participants.

The second session focused on Design Thinking, presented by Vishwa R. Vishwa's expertise in design and innovation was evident as he guided participants through the principles of design thinking. He explained how this approach can be used to solve complex problems creatively and effectively. The session included interactive activities that allowed participants to practice design thinking techniques.

The third session, led by Arjun G S, explored the journey from Idea to Product. Arjun, with his technical and managerial background, provided a comprehensive overview of the product development process. He discussed the stages of transforming an idea into a marketable product, including ideation, prototyping, testing, and commercialization. Arjun also shared practical tips and resources for aspiring entrepreneurs.

The final session on the second day was conducted by Asst. Prof. Shijida Shain, focusing on the differences between Business and Startups. Prof. Shijida highlighted the unique challenges and opportunities associated with startups compared to traditional businesses. She provided insights into the startup ecosystem, funding mechanisms, and the critical factors for startup success. Her extensive experience as a nodal officer and faculty advisor enriched the session with real-world examples and practical advice. The workshop provided participants with valuable insights into various aspects of entrepreneurship and business development.

On July 15, 2024, Skill Haara Training and Placement Service Pvt. Ltd., in association with the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Centre (IEDC) of All Saints' College, Trivandrum, organized a training program titled "Data Analytics: From Raw Data to Insightful Visualizations." The event took place in the Recreation Hall of All Saints' College and witnessed the participation of 100 students from various disciplines.

The program aimed to provide an in-depth orientation on data analytics, focusing on the entire process from data preprocessing to creating insightful visualizations. The session was conducted by Mr. Ciril C. Babu, Technical Manager at Skill Haara, who brought extensive experience and expertise to the training. The program coordinators were Dr. Lissy Bennet, Nodal Officer of IEDC, and Dr. Aparna Merin Mathew, Assistant Nodal Officer of IEDC.

Participants were introduced to various techniques and tools for cleaning and preparing raw data for analysis, handling missing values, normalizing data, and other preprocessing steps to ensure data quality. The session also covered methods for exploring and understanding data sets, identifying patterns, detecting anomalies, and summarizing the main characteristics of data through Exploratory Data Analysis (EDA). Detailed training on various data analysis methods was provided, focusing on applying statistical and computational techniques to analyze data, draw significant conclusions, and make data-driven decisions. The final part of the program emphasized the importance of visualizing data effectively, teaching participants how to create graphs, charts, and other visual tools to represent data insights clearly and compellingly.

The interactive nature of the program encouraged active participation from the students, who engaged in hands-on activities, group discussions, and practical exercises. This approach helped reinforce the concepts taught during the sessions. The "Data Analytics: From Raw Data to Insightful Visualizations" program was a resounding success, providing valuable knowledge and skills to the participants. The collaboration between Skill Haara and IEDC, All Saints' College, highlighted the importance of industry-academic partnerships in enhancing students' learning experiences and preparing them for future challenges in data analytics. Special thanks are extended to Mr. Ciril C. Babu for his expert guidance, and to Dr. Lissy Bennet and Dr. Aparna Merin Mathew for their meticulous coordination. The enthusiasm and active participation of the students made the event engaging and enriching.
