handled by Dr Manoj Pillai, it was a very insightful and knowledgeable session. As mentor, he was able to provide the students with immense resources and knowledge on legal aspects of Cybersecurity. He was also very supportive for the completion of the students' project on Cybercrimes in states.

The following session was handled by Mr. Kumaresan, who gave us a deep insight on Cyber policy, Company data protection policy, Information security policy and Social media policy. It was a session which gave the students a different perspective making them aware about social media, cookies, their privacy etc.

Mr Suresh Babu.P who is the CEO of Strava Technologies also took a very relevant session in the present scenario which dealt with major cyber attacks and those which are prevalent during the pandemic. Followed by Mr Ananthan's session about court, hierarchy of court, provisional and ethics, duties of advocate to the court, clients and colleagues which was really helpful. Participants got more exposure towards the realities behind the legal activities and many of our interpretations were eradicated. All the sessions were very interactive and useful.

Students were divided into 5 groups and were given various activities concerning the program. The main element of the program was the submission of the project on Cybercrimes that was happening in India. Each participant of the program was asked to select the state of their choice and submit a project based on the Cybercrimes that was happening in the respective states. Even during examinations, there were productive discussions on various topics in the WhatsApp group and also google meets were held actively regarding the preparation of the projects..
