An International Seminar was organized by the PG Department of Commerce in association with the IEDC on the topic "Diaspora Entrepreneurship ", on 14th and 15th of December 2021. The seminar consisted of participants belonging to the UG and PG Department of Commerce of All Saints' College and Research Scholars.

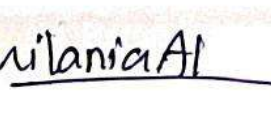

The first day of the International seminar was held offline. Dr Gabriel Simon Thattil, Dean, Professor and Head of the School of Business Management and Legal Studies and IQAC coordinator of the University of Kerala formally inaugurated the ceremony by lighting the lamp. Dr Gabriel Simon Thattil spoke on the topic "Entrepreneurship Culture and Development". The second part of the session was taken over by Dr MS Jayakumar, Assistant Professor of Sociology and Director, Centre of Diaspora Studies, University of Kerala. He discussed various aspects regarding "Social versus Economic Investment of Remittance in Developing Society". The participants got their doubts cleared, which led to a very interactive form of the seminar. Various research scholars from different colleges, presented their papers on certain topics. Dr Jiji Vijayan, Assistant Professor and Head of the Department of Economics of All Saints' College also took active part in the seminar. By that, the session came to an end. The second day of the seminar was held online through Google meet. Dr Kavitha Chavali, Associate Professor, Finance College of Commerce and Business Administration, Dhofar University, Sultanate of Oman was the Chief Guest. The topic which was discussed was "Diaspora Entrepreneurs in India weaving a new global fabric. It was a really enlightening and a thought provoking session. The International seminar on Diaspora Entrepreneurship successfully took place by the kind cooperation and active participation of all the participants.
