The Department of English, in association with the Naandi Foundation's Mahindra Pride Classroom, introduced Certificate Courses in Employability Skills. The 36-hour course was designed to equip the students with the requisite skills to handle interviews and to help them showcase their know-how in the best possible light. All the students in the final year of their course enrolled in the certificate course. This means that nearly 500 students participated in this course which focused on honing communication skills, interpersonal skills, group discussion skills, interview-response and presentation skills. A group of trained professionals from the Naandi Foundation conducted these classes over a period of six days and the sessions culminated in a group discussion and interview form of assessment. The students were divided into two batches and classes were held from 25 to 30 August, 2022 and from 20 to 28 October, 2022.

The syllabus for the course was as follows:
