The screenshot displays the J-Gate library website interface. At the top, the header includes the J-Gate logo (highlighted with a red box), the institution name "All Saints College Thiruvananthapuram", and user links for "My J-Gate", "Logout", and "Help". Below the header, a navigation bar contains links for "All", "My Library", and "My Favourite". A secondary navigation bar offers options like "Basic Search", "Browse A-Z", "Author Finder", "Advanced Search", "Search History", and "View Marked Results".

The main content area is divided into a left sidebar and a central search results pane. The sidebar, titled "Select Publication Type", includes a "Source Type" section and a "Filter Results By" section with two sub-sections: "Category" (with a "Hybrid OA" option and 130 results) and "Subject" (listing various fields like Physical Chemistry, Education & Careers, History, Society and Culture, Micro and Molecular Biology, Biotechnology, Biochemistry, and Language & Linguistics with their respective result counts).

The central search results pane shows a search for "E-journals". It includes a search term input field, a "Refine Search" button, and a "New Search" button. Below this, there are tabs for "All (8057)" and "Full Text (2806)". A "Mark All" checkbox and a "Results 1-10 of 8,057" indicator are present. A "Change Search Settings" link is also visible. The results are sorted by "Date" (with options for Relevance and Ranking). The first four results are listed, each with a checkbox, a title, authors, and a link to the journal article. A "Feedback" button is located on the right side of the results pane. A "Chat Support" button is at the bottom right.

" Librarians have always been among the most thoughtful and helpful people. They are teachers without a classroom."
-Willard Scott

" Libraries allow children to ask questions about the world and find the answers. And the wonderful thing is that once a child learns to use a library, the doors to learning are always open."
-Laura Bush

" Shout for libraries. Shout for the young readers who use them."
-Patrick Ness

" Without libraries what have we? We have no past and no future."
-Ray Bradbury
