Venue : Department of Commerce

Organised by :
Department of Commerce

Patron : Rev. Sr. Molly Attully
Principal : Prof. (Dr.) Reshmi R. Prasad

Organising Team :
Faculties of Department of Commerce

Date: 1st August 2023

Duration: One Week

Venue: Department of Commerce

Participants: B.Com, Economics, and History Students

The certificate course on Research Methodology in Social Sciences was inaugurated by the esteemed Dr. Sr. Carvalho Faustina Cicila, Assistant professor and head of the department of Commerce on the 1st of August, 2023. Dr. Cicila, shared her insights on the importance of research methodology in the contemporary academic and professional landscape. The one-week certificate course was meticulously designed to cater to students from diverse academic backgrounds including B.Com, Economics, and History. The objective was to equip students with foundational knowledge and practical skills in research methodology, enhancing their ability to undertake independent research projects.

Course Content and Structure

The course covered various essential aspects of research methodology, including:

Introduction to Research Methodology: Understanding the basics of research, its significance, and various types of research in social sciences.

Research Design: Exploring different research designs and their applicability in social sciences.

Data Collection Methods: Techniques for collecting qualitative and quantitative data.

Data Analysis: Introduction to statistical tools and software used in analyzing research data.

Report Writing and Presentation: Guidelines for writing research reports and presenting findings effectively.

The sessions were conducted by the experienced faculties of the Commerce Department, who brought in their rich academic and research expertise. Their interactive teaching methods, combined with practical examples, facilitated a comprehensive learning experience for the students. The students expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to participate in this certificate course. They appreciated the depth of knowledge shared and the hands-on approach adopted by the faculty. The course was instrumental in enhancing their research skills, which they found to be highly relevant to their respective fields of study. The certificate course on Research Methodology in Social Sciences was a resounding success, reflecting the Department of Commerce's commitment to providing quality education and skill development opportunities. The department looks forward to organizing similar initiatives in the future to further enrich the academic journey of its students.
