Subject Letter of Appreciation for Support in Conducting Employability Skills Programmes

Dear Sir/Madam,

On behalf of the Naandi Foundation and the Mahindra Pride Classroom initiative, we would like to express our sincere appreciation to All Saints' College, Thiruvananthapuram, for your outstanding support and collaboration in conducting the Mahindra Pride Classroom Employability Skills Programme for the academic year 2023-24.

Your institution has played a pivotal role in helping enhance the employability skills of your students, preparing them for the professional world. We are particularly grateful for the dedication, enthusiasm, and coordination shown by your faculty and administrative staff in ensuring the smooth and successful implementation of the programme. Your unwavering support has contributed immensely to furthering our mission of empowering youth and creating a positive impact on their future.

The partnership between All Saints' College and the Mahindra Pride Classroom initiative has been a testament to the importance of collective efforts in bridging the gap between education and employment. We value the time and effort your team has invested in ensuring that these skill development programmes were conducted with excellence.

We look forward to continuing our partnership with your esteemed institution and extending our support to future endeavours that benefit the students and the community at large. Together, we can further equip young minds with the skills and confidence needed to succeed in today's competitive world.

Once again, thank you for your invaluable support.

Warm regards,
Naandi Foundation
