7 Objective of the Program

The primary objective of the College Level Training Program on FYUGP for Non-Teaching Staff was to equip non-teaching staff members at All Saints' College with the necessary understanding of the Four Year Undergraduate Programme (FYUGP) curriculum framework and Outcome-Based Education (OBE) principles.

8 Detailed description of the event

The training program was organized by the IQAC of All Saints' College on March 1, 2024, at 1:30 PM in the Audio Visual Room. The resource persons for the program were:

- Dr. K Rajesh, Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry, University College, Thiruvananthapuram
- Dr. Balakrishnan, Associate Professor, Department of History, University College, Thiruvananthapuram

The program covered the following key areas:

- FYUGP Curriculum Framework: A detailed explanation of the FYUGP curriculum framework, its components, and its implications for academic administration and support services.
- Outcome-Based Education: An introduction to the principles and practices of OBE, including the role of non-teaching staff in supporting student learning and assessment.
- Administrative Support for FYUGP: The role of non-teaching staff in facilitating the smooth implementation of the FYUGP, including timetabling, student records, and examination processes.

- Student Support Services: The importance of student support services in helping students achieve their academic goals, including counseling, career guidance, and library services.
- Quality Assurance and Accreditation: The role of non-teaching staff in maintaining quality standards and preparing for accreditation processes.

9 Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator

The College Level Training Program on FYUGP for Non-Teaching Staff was highly successful in achieving its objectives. The program provided valuable insights and practical guidance to non-teaching staff members, enabling them to:

- Gain a deeper understanding of the FYUGP curriculum framework and its impact on their roles and responsibilities.
- Develop a shared vision of the college's academic goals and objectives.
- Enhance their skills in supporting students and faculty in the implementation of FYUGP and OBE.
- Contribute to the overall quality assurance and improvement initiatives of the college.
